Steven J. West recently relocated to Cleveland, Ohio after graduating from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan with a BFA in acting. He is currently working as a professional actor/teacher in the prestigious school residency program with the Great Lakes Theatre Festival. Prior to working for the Great Lakes Theatre Festival, Steven worked as a private acting coach at Long Lake Camp for the Arts in up-state New York; one of the most well-known and respected summer theatre camps in the country. He has directed and coached several productions with students of all ages.

what people are saying..

“Steve was a really great passionate teacher. He really cared about what he was doing and encouraged me to take risks that I probably wouldn’t have taken otherwise. He helped me so much with learning how to audition and really being prepared for cold readings.” - Alison Mahoney, Student at Long Lake Camp for the Arts (Long Lake NY)

“Steve West brings a dynamic energy and unmatched positive presence to every production he is a part of. His name is synonymous with charisma and his talent is truly inspiring. My high school students admire and value the time they had with Steve as their Assistant Director...” - Kristen Quesada, Salem High School Teacher and Director of Park Players (Canton MI)

“It is so easy to work with him and in front of him, he makes you feel very comfortable and really helps with what you need; he’s very patient and will take as much time as you need...”

“...[Gave] me a lot of information on what to expect in the future for my career; as I plan to major in theatre.” - Kyle Scanlon Cast member of Smokey Joes Cafe, Park Players (Canton MI)
