Three ways to get on our show

Be A CTalker™!

Are you a comic, a character, have an idea on what you can do to change the world? Then you would probably be a great audition for CTalkers™, vivacious, talkative and interesting children who openly share their worldly views, and tell stories on stage live with our puppet, CT™ and host, Taylor Mason.

Be in the audience!

RSVP on line to watch our show live, and be filmed in the audience! The new variety show featuring family friendly adventures of one certainly terrific star puppet named CT, a comically curious natured co-host will star along with actor and ventriloquist Taylor Mason. Taylor Mason is a talented entertainer and puppeteer, who has been featured on Comedy Club Network, Star Search and won numerous other awards.

Send in ShortKUTS™ Video Fan Mail!

CT™ loves his Video Fan Mail! Send us your home videos featuring you talking about things that are endearing, insightful, eventful, or a downright hoot! You are the person that knows a good joke, dreams up new commercials and tells the world about it. The best ShortKUTS™ get on the show and the website.

For more information or to RSVP, go to our website: www.childrentalk.com

* All members of the audience must sign an on-line Children Talk™ Media Release.
